

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF ILLINOIS
EASTERN DIVISION

SCOTT DOLEMBA,
on behalf of plaintiff and the class defined below,

Plaintiff,

vs.

LIFESTATION, INC.,
and DOES 1-10,

Defendants.

16 C 10348

COMPLAINT – CLASS ACTION

INTRODUCTION

1. Plaintiff Scott Dolemba brings this action to secure redress from unlawful practices engaged in by defendants Lifestation, Inc., and Does 1-10. Plaintiff alleges violation of the Telephone Consumer Protection Act, 47 U.S.C. §227 (“TCPA”) and the Illinois Consumer Fraud Act (“ICFA”).

2. The TCPA restricts the use of automated equipment to dial cellular telephones.

VENUE AND JURISDICTION

3. This Court has jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. §§1331 (federal question), 1337 (commerce), and 1367 (supplemental jurisdiction).

4. Venue and personal jurisdiction in this District are proper because:

- a. Defendants’ communications were received by plaintiff in this District;
- b. Defendants transact business within this District.

PARTIES

5. Plaintiff Scott Dolemba is an individual who resides in the Northern District of Illinois.

6. Defendant Lifestation, Inc., is a New York corporation with its principal offices at 2 Stahuber Avenue, Union, NJ 07083. It does business in Illinois. Its registered agent and office is Illinois Corporation Service Co., 801 Adlai Stevenson Drive, Springfield, IL 62703.

7. Defendant Does 1-10 are other persons responsible for the calls detailed below.

FACTS

8. On October 4, 2016, at about 10.09 a.m., plaintiff received a telephone call on his cell phone purportedly from 630-801-5265. (Exhibit A)

9. The call began with a recorded message offering a medical alert system valued at $475.00. The message concluded by inviting plaintiff to press 1 to speak with a live person.

10. Plaintiff pressed 1 and was connected to a live person, who identified himself as “Andy,” and offered defendant’s medical alert system. The offer was to provide a “free” medical alert device worth $475.00 if plaintiff took monthly monitoring at $29.95 per month.

11. Defendants placed the phone call to plaintiff’s cell phone.

12. On information and belief, the calls were placed using a predictive dialer and prerecorded voice. Predictive dialers place calls without human intervention until a connection is made. The machine “predicts” when a human is likely to be available to take the call if answered.

13. Plaintiff did not authorize the automated placement of calls to his cell phone.

14. Plaintiff may have received other automated calls from the same source.

15. Plaintiff did not furnish his cell phone number to defendants.

16. Plaintiff and each class member is entitled to statutory damages.

17. Defendants violated the TCPA even if their actions were only negligent.

18. Defendants should be enjoined from committing similar violations in the future.

COUNT I – TCPA

19. Plaintiff incorporates paragraphs 1-18.

20. The TCPA, 47 U.S.C. §227, provides:

§ 227. Restrictions on use of telephone equipment

... (b) Restrictions on use of automated telephone equipment.

(1) Prohibitions. It shall be unlawful for any person within the United States, or any person outside the United States if the recipient is within the United States—

(A) to make any call (other than a call made for emergency purposes or made with the prior express consent of the called party) using any automatic telephone dialing system or an artificial or prerecorded voice—

(iii) to any telephone number assigned to a paging service, cellular telephone service, specialized mobile radio service, or other radio common carrier service, or any service for which the called party is charged for the call; . . .

21. The TCPA, 47 U.S.C. §227(b)(3), further provides:

Private right of action.

A person or entity may, if otherwise permitted by the laws or rules of court of a State, bring in an appropriate court of that State—

(A) an action based on a violation of this subsection or the regulations prescribed under this subsection to enjoin such violation,

(B) an action to recover for actual monetary loss from such a violation, or to receive $500 in damages for each such violation, whichever is greater, or

(C) both such actions.

If the Court finds that the defendant willfully or knowingly violated this subsection or the regulations prescribed under this subsection, the court may, in its discretion, increase the amount of the award to an amount equal to not more than 3 times the amount available under the subparagraph (B) of this paragraph.

22. Defendants violated the TCPA by placing automated calls to plaintiff's phone.

CLASS ALLEGATIONS

23. Plaintiff brings this claim on behalf of a class, consisting of (a) all persons (b) who, on or after a date four years prior to the filing of this action (28 U.S.C. §1658), and on or before a date 20 days following the filing of this action, (c) received calls from defendants on their cell phones, (d) placed using an automated dialer or a prerecorded or artificial voice.

24. The class is so numerous that joinder of all members is impractical. Plaintiff alleges on information and belief that there are more than 40 members of the class.

25. There are questions of law and fact common to the class that predominate over any questions affecting only individual class members. The predominant common questions include:

- a. Whether defendants engaged in a pattern of using automated equipment to place calls to cellular telephones;
- b. The manner in which defendants obtained the cell phone numbers; and
- c. Whether defendants thereby violated the TCPA.

26. Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the class. Plaintiff has retained counsel experienced in handling class actions and claims involving unlawful business practices. Neither plaintiff nor plaintiff's counsel has any interests which might cause them not to vigorously pursue this action.

27. A class action is an appropriate method for the fair and efficient adjudication of this controversy. The interest of class members in individually controlling the prosecution of separate claims against defendants is small because it is not economically feasible to bring individual actions.

28. Several courts have certified class actions under the TCPA: Meyer v. Portfolio Recovery Associates, LLC, 707 F.3d 1036 (9th Cir. 2012); Manno v. Healthcare Revenue Recovery Group, LLC, 289 F.R.D. 674 (S.D.Fla. 2013); Mitchem v Illinois Collection Serv., 271 F.R.D. 617 (N.D.Ill. 2011); Balbarin v. North Star Capital Acquisition, LLC, 10 C 1846, 2011 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 686 (N.D. Ill., Jan. 5, 2011), later opinion, 2011 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 5763 (N.D.Ill., Jan. 21, 2011), later opinion, 2011 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 58761 (N.D. Ill., June 1, 2011); Lo v. Oxnard European Motors, LLC, 11CV1009 JLS (MDD), 2012 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 73983 (S.D.Cal., May 29, 2012); Sadowski v. Med1 Online, LLC, 07 C 2973, 2008 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 41766 (N.D.Ill., May 27, 2008); CE Design Ltd. v Cy's Crabhouse North, Inc., 259 F.R.D. 135 (N.D.Ill. 2009); Targin Sign Sys. v Preferred Chiropractic Ctr., Ltd., 679 F. Supp. 2d 894 (N.D.Ill. 2010); Garrett v. Ragle Dental Lab, Inc., 10 C 1315, 2010 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 108339, 2010 WL 4074379 (N.D.Ill., Oct. 12, 2010); Hinman v. M & M Rental Ctr., 545 F.Supp. 2d 802 (N.D.Ill. 2008); Clearbrook v. Rooflifters, LLC, 08 C 3276, 2010 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 72902 (N.D. Ill. July 20, 2010) (Cox, M.J.); G.M. Sign, Inc. v. Group C Communs., Inc., 08 C 4521, 2010 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 17843 (N.D. Ill. Feb. 25, 2010); Holtzman v. Turza, 08 C 2014, 2009 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 95620 (N.D.Ill., Oct. 14, 2009); Kavu, Inc. v. Omnipak Corp., 246 F.R.D. 642 (W.D.Wash. 2007); Display South, Inc. v. Express Computer Supply, Inc., 961 So.2d 451, 455 (La. App. 1st Cir. 2007); Display South, Inc. v. Graphics House Sports Promotions, Inc., 992 So. 2d 510 (La. App. 1st Cir. 2008); Lampkin v. GGH, Inc., 146 P.3d 847 (Ok. App. 2006); ESI Ergonomic Solutions, LLC v. United Artists Theatre Circuit, Inc., 203 Ariz. (App.) 94, 50 P.3d 844 (2002); Core Funding Group, LLC v. Young, 792 N.E.2d 547 (Ind.App. 2003); Critchfield Physical Therapy v. Taranto Group, Inc., 293 Kan. 285; 263 P.3d 767 (2011); Karen S. Little, L.L.C. v. Drury Inns, Inc., 306 S.W.3d 577 (Mo. App. 2010); Travel 100 Group, Inc. v. Empire Cooler Service, Inc., 03 CH 14510 (Cook Co. Cir. Ct., Oct. 19, 2004); Rawson v. C.P. Partners LLC, 03 CH 14510 (Cook Co. Cir. Ct., Sept. 30, 2005); Nicholson v. Hooters of Augusta, Inc., 245 Ga.App. 363, 537 S.E.2d 468 (2000).

29. Management of this class action is likely to present significantly fewer difficulties than those presented in many class actions, e.g. for securities fraud.

WHEREFORE, plaintiff requests that the Court enter judgment in favor of plaintiff and the class and against defendants for:

- (a) Statutory damages;
- (b) An injunction against the further violations;
- (c) Costs of suit; and
- (d) Such other or further relief as the Court deems just and proper.

COUNT II – ILLINOIS CONSUMER FRAUD ACT

30. Plaintiff incorporates paragraphs 1-18.

31. Defendants engaged in unfair acts and practices, in violation of ICFA § 2, 815

ILCS 505/2, by making an unauthorized robocall to plaintiff's cell phone.

- 32. Defendants' conduct is contrary to public policy, as set forth in the TCPA.
- 33. Plaintiff suffered damages as a result of receipt of the call.
- 34. Defendants engaged in such conduct in the course of trade and commerce.
- 35. Defendants should be enjoined from committing similar violations in the future.

CLASS ALLEGATIONS

36. Plaintiff brings this claim on behalf of a class, consisting of (a) all persons with phone numbers in the Illinois area codes (b) who, on or after a date three years prior to the filing of this action, and on or before a date 20 days following the filing of this action, (c) received calls from defendants on their cell phones, (d) placed using an automated dialer or a prerecorded or artificial voice.

37. The class is so numerous that joinder of all members is impractical. Plaintiff alleges on information and belief that there are more than 40 members of the class.

38. There are questions of law and fact common to the class that predominate over any questions affecting only individual class members. The predominant common questions include:

- a. Whether defendants engaged in a pattern of using automated equipment to place calls to cellular telephones;
- b. The manner in which defendants compiled or obtained their list of telephone numbers; and
- c. Whether defendants thereby violated the ICFA.

39. Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the class. Plaintiff has retained counsel experienced in handling class actions and claims involving unlawful business practices. Neither plaintiff nor plaintiff's counsel has any interests which might cause them not to vigorously pursue this action.

40. Plaintiff's claims are typical of the claims of the class members. All are based on the same factual and legal theories.

41. A class action is the superior method for the fair and efficient adjudication of this controversy. The interest of class members in individually controlling the prosecution of separate claims against defendant is small because it is not economically feasible to bring individual actions.

42. Management of this class action is likely to present significantly fewer difficulties than those presented in many class actions, e.g. for securities fraud.

WHEREFORE, plaintiff requests that the Court enter judgment in favor of plaintiff and the class and against defendants for:

- (a) Statutory damages;
- (b) An injunction against further violations;
- (c) Costs of suit;
- (d) Such other or further relief as the Court deems just and proper.

DOCUMENT PRESERVATION DEMAND

Plaintiff hereby demands that defendant take affirmative steps to preserve all recordings, data, documents, and all other tangible things that relate to plaintiff, the events described herein, any third party associated with any telephone call, campaign, account, sale or file associated with plaintiff, and any account or number or symbol relating to them. These materials are likely very relevant to the litigation of this claim. If defendant is aware of any third party that has possession, custody, or control of any such materials, plaintiff demands that defendant request that such third party also take steps to preserve the materials. This demand shall not narrow the scope of any independent document preservation duties of the defendant.
